Charles R. Head Baseball Field, Avon Park

There is no website for this, I can get you the address later. Babe Ruth and other players, during that time, played at this field for spring training. Field is pretty much the way it looked back then. The players stayed at the local hotel, The Jacaranda, which is a lovely place also.

Gatorama Alligator Farm and Family Destination

Highlands Hammock State Park, Sebring

This is Florida's first state park in 1935, there are many trails but the one we like the best is called the Cypress Swamp Trail, or the catwalk. It is a wooden raised walkway through the cypress trees and alligators, birds, snakes, flowers can all be seen. There is also a CCC Museum as the park was built by the CCC men.

Hen Scratch Winery, Lake Placid

Great winery, will give tours to groups over 20 people, I believe, must be arranged ahead of time. Called Hen Scratch because they have chickens running around eating the bugs instead of using pesticides. Also strawberries, blueberries for the picking, during the season. We've been there, great way to spend the afternoon, there is a small tasting room with items for sale. Of course the wine is for sale also!
